Risposte Turismo is a research and consulting company active since 2001 and specialised in providing planning and operational solutions to public and private organisations, institutions and companies in the tourist macro-industry that are dealing with strategic or management issues.

Risposte Turismo will conduct in-depth research on current sustainable travel trends in Europe, with a specific focus on Italy and Croatia. Their goal is to identify key themes for future thematic paths and compile an inventory of existing attractions, resources, and activities within the project area. It will create multimedia material for training. Additionally, they will actively contribute to building the OMNIS community.

Risposte Turismo methodology is based on a continuous updating of research techniques.
