

Report on external sport events

The Zero Waste Blue team at the Faculty of Tourism and Hospitality Management chose a few events to promote the project and got in touch with the organizers of those sport events. The organizers gladly accepted the idea of cooperation and promotion of the Zero Waste Blue project and its' values.

Participants and visitors of all events have shown high interest in the project and liked the idea of it very much.

In order to promote the project and to leave a reminder of the Zero Waste Blue project to participants and visitors, the team shared/distributed some promotional gadgets and brochures of the project.
